SERVING
SERVICE

In this section, TRAINING FOR SERVICE, we are attempting to portray the ministry of the FORT WAYNE BIBLE INSTITUTE in preparing candidates for Christian service, its field of service to the students, to the surrounding community, and to the uttermost parts of the world.

As you progress through the book you will find

The Seniors . . . now trained for service

The Faculty and Staff . . . those whose task it is to do the training under God's leadership.

The Under Classmen . . . those who are still in the training process. The staff of the 1950 Light Tower trusts that this book will prove to be an inspiring story of Bible school life, not only now but in the future days of nostalgic memories, to every reader.

LIBRARY SERVICE

One of the large specialized collections of books on theology and religion in Ft. Wayne is found in the library of the Bible Institute. Over 8,500 books and pamphlets, and over 100 periodicals are instantly available for reference and research.

SCHOOL OF EXTENSION STUDY

This department holds a very important position in the Bible Institute's field of service. Little heralded, it reaches many students who otherwise would be unable to receive Bible training, and also supplements the work of many of the resident students. At the present time 72 students are enrolled in the School of Extension Study.

Another important ministry of the Bible Institute is in sending students into homes to do household tasks, baby sitting, and yard work. In addition to aiding the students financially it also affords many opportunities to bear witness to Jesus Christ. Students have had the privilege of working in over 230 homes this year.

IN MEMORIAM

We dedicate this page to our beloved teacher whom the Lord called home March 31, 1950, after thirty-seven years of faithful service at the Bible Institute.

Rev. B. F. Leightner, Jr., was an inspiration to everyone of the students who sat under his ministry in this school. His classes repeatedly received new visions of Calvary as God's faithful servant, with tears coursing down his cheeks, praised God for the wondrous power of the blood of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. We will miss the fragrance of Christ as displayed in the life of our brother. We will treasure memories of his friendliness, his kindness, and his helpfulness in times when we students sought counsel. Yes, we will miss him, but we rejoice with him in his glorious entrance into the presence of his Lord and Master.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."

—Psalm 116:15

PRESIDENT

Our President, Dr. Witmer, has been away from us this year studying at the University of Chicago. We have missed his friendly smile and his spiritual instruction, but we have greatly enjoyed his refreshing chapel messages on his occasional visits to our school. We are looking forward to having him at home with us next year.

REV. P. L. EICHER

is the business manager of our school. He has served in this capacity for twenty-four years, and is known for his careful planning and sincere, hard work. He has endeared himself to the students, so that he is known to all of them as "Uncle Pete." Mr. Eicher and his wife spent sixteen years as missionaries in India before coming to the Institute.

It is in recognition of his faithful service to the Lord and to our school that we dedicate this page to Mr. Eicher.

MRS. J. E. RAMSEYER

A day seldom passes that we do not have the pleasure of seeing Mother Ramseyer. Her presence in our chapel hour during the year has been a blessing to all. Her sweet testimony and words of spiritual guidance have been greatly appreciated. So we honor Mrs. J. E. Ramseyer, wife of the late Rev. J. E. Ramseyer, co-founder and former president of our school; and we recognize her years of devotion to the Bible Institute.

CLASS OF '51

Congratulations
Class of '50

From the Classes of

'52 '53 '54

The Faculty and the Administration of the Fort Wayne Bible Institute congratulate the staff of the 1950 Light Tower for its achievement in this presentation of Institute life, and the Class of 1950 for backing the project.

The yearbook is one of many student activities that express an important principle in the educational program. Theory is valid only as it is practised in life and applied to useful tasks. Therefore, a wide range of Christian ministries and student activities complement the learning experiences of the classroom. In its mission of training young people in this period of crisis for the important mission of world evangelism, the Institute follows its slogan "Training for Service and Service in Training."

Inquiries from Christian young people are invited. A free catalog will be mailed to anyone upon request by addressing a card to the Registrar.

Christian stewards desirous of having a share in promoting education that puts first values first, are invited to write to the President for further information or send their gifts to the Treasurer.
